

This land is your land this land is my land
 From California to the New York island;
 From the red wood forest to the Gulf Stream waters
 This land was made for you and me.

waters

This land was made for you and me.
 Nobody living can ever stop me,
 As I go walking that freedom highway;
 As I was walking that ribbon of highway,

This land was made for you and me.

Nobody living can ever make me turn back

No body living can ever make me turn back

No body living can ever stop me,

No body living can ever stop me.

This land is your land this land is my land
 From California to the New York island;
 From the red wood forest to the Gulf Stream waters
 This land was made for you and me.

I saw above me that endless skyway;
 I saw below me that golden valley;
 I saw from the red wood forest to the Gulf Stream waters
 Stream waters

This land was made for you and me.

I saw above me that endless skyway;

I saw below me that golden valley;

I saw from the red wood forest to the Gulf Stream waters

Stream waters

This Land is Your Land

By: Woody Guthrie

What does your vision of America look like?

*This land is your land this land is my land
 From California to the New York island;
 From the red wood forest to the Gulf Stream waters
 This land was made for you and Me.*

*This land is your land this land is my land
From California to the New York island;
From the red wood forest to the Gulf Stream
waters*

*This land was made for you and me.
And all around me a voice was sounding:
To the sparkling sands of her diamond desert
I've roamed and rambled and I followed my footsteps
This land was made for you and me.*

*From the red wood forest to the Gulf Stream
waters*

*This land is your land this land is my land
As they stood there hungry, I stood there asking
Is this land made for you and me?
By the river I seen my people,
In the shadow of the steeples I saw my people,*

When the sun came shining, and I was strolling,
And the wheat fields waving and the dust clouds rolling,
As the fog was lifting a voice was chanting:
This land was made for you and me.

*This land is your land this land is my land
From California to the New York island;
From the red wood forest to the Gulf Stream
waters*

As I went walking I saw a sign there
And on the sign it said "No Trespassing."
But on the other side it didn't say nothing,
That side was made for you and me.

*This land is your land this land is my land
From California to the New York island;
From the red wood forest to the Gulf Stream
waters*
